

MONGOLIA FOR CHRIST

Ministry Update Dear friends, my first 2 months as Chaplain in the Clermont County Jail since returning from Mongolia have been a blessing. Each week I've had the opportunity to meet one-on-one. Each inmate has a unique situation. For some, I lead them through the Bible for the first time, to understand the sin condition, God's Holy Law and then to learn of our Savior. For some, I provide discipleship training geared to the particular trials they're facing presently. With others, I provide Christian fellowship to those who know Christ as Savior, but need to be lifted up in God's grace and encouraged as they face being locked up and separated from family. I usually spend about an hour with each man and may see three fellows during one visit to the facility. I'll begin teaching larger classes of 30-40 on either Saturday or Sunday at the end of this month and am looking forward to that addition to my schedule.

It's an honor to be involved in this capacity again on U.S. soil, and observe how the Lord uses what he has taught me throughout the past decade as missionary to Mongolia. I'm finding that little has been wasted in taking this new step. That in itself has been comforting and reassuring.

I thank God for your prayers and support as I get started.
