Dear Praying Friends,

Our Children's Bible Club will be the 14th to the 18th of August. Please pray that the parents will bring their children, pray for safety, pray for children to be saved, and pray that God will use this to bring families to Calvary Baptist Church. Also please pray for the health of the workers.

We have been distributing invitations to the Children's Bible Club and last Sunday a woman and her son came to church because of the invitation. Jocelyn and her son Matthew (about 5 years old) just moved to Cork a few months ago and so when they received the invitation they came to church. We will be visiting them in the near future. Please pray that they continue coming to church.

The door to door witnessing has been going well. More and more people will speak to us even if it is just for a short time. Still the vast majority of people will not speak to us, but with more people listening at least more seeds are being sown. Here are some people to pray for that have been witnessed to through door to door witnessing.

Please pray for the salvation of a man named Matthew. Lionel witnessed to him while going door to door on a Sat. morning. Matthew at first was laughing about his sin "not being that bad", but the Holy Spirit was working and soon Matthew was convicted of his need to be saved. He did not get saved that morning, but he promised to come to church. Sadly, Matthew did not come to church and although Lionel has called back to Matthew a number of times he has not had another witness with Matthew.

Eihab is a Muslim man that Lionel witnessed to while going door to door. Eihab was quite open and even asked for a Bible. Lionel called back with a Bible and a gospel DVD. Eihab was not at home so Lionel left them with his wife and shared some scriptures with her. Please pray for this family to be saved.

Lionel witnessed to Owen and Owen said he had a family member that is saved. Owen asked for a Bible to read and so Lionel gave him one. Owen is firmly convinced that he is not a sinner. Lionel showed him where God says all have sinned and then asked Owen if God was lying. Owen would not answer. Please pray for Owens salvation and pray that he will read the Bible that was given him.

Also pray for a man named Shane. He was open, but he was busy so we will be calling back to him.

Thank you for your faithful support and for upholding us in prayer. We are blessed to be your missionaries.

God Bless,

The Smith Family

P.S. In order that we may openly share pictures, names, and prayer requests, please do not post our prayer letters on the internet.
